"It must be peace without victory...Only a peace between equals can last."

~Woodrow Wilson

Woodrow Wilson already had excelled as a scholar, teacher and the President of Princeton University before launching a career in politics that would lead him to his Country's highest office.

He served as Governor of New Jersey before becoming President in 1912. In his first term, he remarkably was able to carry through legislation including the Federal Reserve Act and the formation of the Federal Trade Commission. His second term brough the US through World War I.

The depth of his idealistic fervor gave force to his political leadership, and US intervention soon brought the war to an end. His Fourteen Points became the basis for the German peace. He was instrumental in forming the League of Nations and concluding the Versailles Treaty. He was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize in 1919.
